

A Day in a Teacher's Life

A lot has already been said about a teacher; but generally Anthony Liccione sums it up by saying “We are all actors, set on the stage of the world, as the curtains open we put on our best performance to this audience of life”.

Indeed, teachers are actors and actresses expected to deliver their best in front of their audience – the students. When the light is on, there is no turning back. The different roles unfold before the very eyes of the learners. Name it, and literally teachers will try their best to accomplish set goals and expectations and act the role.

That is how the LCCian educators do it.

As La Consolacion College-Caloocan recognizes the very important roles the teachers play in the lives of the LCCians, a simple tribute in honor of the teaching warriors was prepared.

The celebration was held on September 29, 2022 with the theme “Gurong Pilipino Dangal ng Sambayanang Filipino”.

The event started with a Eucharistic Celebration presided by Fr. Anthony Acupan, local prior of the Convento Sto. Nino de Basceo.

A short program followed afterwards.

Some LCCC -alumni paid tribute to their former teachers through song and dance numbers. Others also greeted their mentors via recorded video expressing their appreciation and gratitude for a job well-done.

A song dedicated to the teachers was rendered by Mrs. Maritess Luna, an incumbent treasurer from the Family Council Incorporated (FCI).

Some members of the faculty also showcased their talents; a song from the GS, dance number from the JHS and mix-jam for the SHS to the delight of their colleagues.

The fun-filled event was made extra special by a surprised number from the administrators and a message from the school president, Sr. Maria A. Garcia, OSA who expressed her gratitude to both the teaching and the non-teaching personnel.

Some tokens of appreciation were distributed courtesy of the FCI, BED-Faculty Club and the administration.

The celebration ended with a sumptuous feast prepared by the administrators.

Mr. Jeffrey Stephen Olaguera and Mrs. Rona Salvador hosted the affair.

A cheerful greetings of Happy Teacher's Day resonated through the hall as the gathering ended.
